Fried Noodle

Lunch Party!

June 17. Sun

start @ 1pm ¥500/person

Have you tried fried noodle called “yaki-soba” yet? How about “yaki-udon”? Yaki-soba is often seen at a festival, but yaki-udon might be more difficult to encounter. These two dishes are popular homemade foods in Japan. How to cook is so simple and both are so tasty! This time we will make these two dishes at our school. We will discuss and decide the ingredients together, so more people can join and enjoy. If you are interested, please book your seat!
